NO FRESH DISORDERS BREAK OUT TODAY.

Paterson, N. J., June 20.—The Essex troop of cavalry of Newark arrived here today and proceeded at once to the armory. The streets were lined with people while the cavalry proceeded toward the armory, but there was no demonstration or excitement of any kind. Contrary to expectations an order was issued today ordering the local companies of the National Guard to report for duty. It had been expected that only troops from other cities would be called upon to do strike duty here.

A number of silk mills opened at the usual hour today, the owners relying upon the promise of the mayor that troops would be called out to protect property. At all the mills that started up policemen, firemen or deputy sheriffs were on guard, and every crowd that gathered at any of the plants was promptly dispersed. The orders of the mayor are that no gathering of people shall be permitted in the street and these orders are being fully carried out by the force of his command. In addition to the silk mills two dye-houses were opened up this morning. At these places the bosses went to work assisted by non-union dyers' helpers.

At mills that have opened the employes were supplied with arms and ammunition to protect themselves and their employers' property in case of attack.

A mass meeting of the striking dyers' helpers was held in the town hall today, at which seven policemen were in attendance. It was conducted in a quiet and orderly manner. The only speaker was President McGrath, of the Dyers' Helpers' union, who expressed his deep regret at the riotous demonstration on Wednesday and said that such actions could only harm the cause of the workmen.

The first and second battalions of the first regiment of Newark have arrived and are held at the armory. Italian strikers and their sympathizers to the number of about 700 are gathered in the vicinity of the armory, keeping a close watch on the movements of the soldiers. So far they have made no demonstration.

SILK MILLS CLOSED.

Union Hill, N. J. June 20.—Every silk factory in Union Hill with one exception was closed today. The owners decided not to attempt to resume operations for the present owing to yesterday's riotous disturbances.

The prisoners taken after the disturbance at the Simon mill yesterday were today held in $500 bail each for the grand jury. Bail was not given and they were taken to jail. Detectives from Paterson came here today and asked that three Italians found here be arrested. The men were taken into custody and on each of them was found a loaded revolver with a supply of cartridges.

WILL OFFER TO ARBITRATE.

New York, June 20.—The Italian chamber of commerce of this city has decided to try to arbitrate the differences between the striking silk dyers of Paterson and their employers. At a secret meeting of that organization many of the members who are silk importers whose business is affected, a committee of four was appointed to visit Paterson today and confer with the city officials, the strikers and the mill owners, and to offer to act as arbitrators or in any other acceptable way lend the help of the Italian business men toward the settlement of the strike.

Secretary Sconfietti, who went to Paterson to arrange for the conferences, saw Mayor Hinchcliffe and explained the purpose of his visit. The mayor received him cordially and agreed to meet the committee.

CONFESSED TWO MURDERS.

Brandon, Manitoba, June 20.—Walter Gordon, who was convicted at the Spring assizes here for the murder of Charles Daw, a young Englishman, and who also confessed to the murder of Jacob Smith, Daw's hired man, was hanged here today. The prisoner manifested the greatest sangfroid to the end. Gordon had arranged to purchase Daw's farm, but when the time came for completing the bargain he lacked the money. He took possession of the farm and held it for some time, but, fearing detection, fled to Dakota, where he enlisted in the United States army. Afterwards he deserted, and, going to Halifax, enlisted in the Second Canadian Mounted Rifles for South Africa. He was arrested just as he was embarking.

Aaron Dukes has instituted suit against Charles McCulloch, Henry C. Paul, Charles S. Bash and Robert Simonton, alleging damages in the sum of $40,000. The suit is an outgrowth of the conveyance to the Southwestern Traction company of the right of way along the line of the old Wabash and Erie canal, between this city and Huntington, and now occupied by the traction company's tracks. Dukes claims to have held an option along the route mentioned prior to its acquirement by the traction company. Head brakeman on eastbound train.

The engineer of the eastbound, took the siding, expecting the eastbound, which had the right of way, to pass. The latter, believing everything clear, came along at a high rate of speed. The switch, however, had in some way not yet explained, been turned and the eastbound dashed into the waiting train.

The wreck caught fire, but the passengers formed a bucket brigade and kept the flames under control for a time. But at 4:35 the work was given up and the fire burned four coaches and three or four mail, express and baggage cars.

Engineer Scott's body has not yet been recovered and it is thought that two or three mail clerks and baggagemen are not yet accounted for.

MADE DIVINITY DOCTOR.

Rev. A. K. Zartman, D. D., pastor of Grace Reformed church, this city, today received a letter from the secretary of the board of regents of Heidelberg university, Tiffin, O., announcing that Rev. Charles F. Krieter, formerly and for many years pastor of Salem Reformed church in this city, had been honored with the degree of doctor of divinity by the regents of that institution. Dr. Krieter was a classmate of Dr. Zartman and was graduated from the college in 1874, and from the theological seminary in 1876. He is now pastor of a Louisville congregation.

For a time yesterday afternoon Dr. G. R. M. Bower was seriously ill from what is believed to have been metallic poisoning. At noon Dr. Bower ate some lettuce over which he had poured vinegar. The peculiar color of the liquid attracted his attention, but he thought little of it until some time later when he was taken violently ill. Vomiting ensued of a severity sufficient to rupture a small blood vessel in one of Dr. Bower's eyes and another in his throat. Dr. Bower is much better today, though still suffering somewhat from the effects of his unpleasant experience.

Washington, June 20.—Gen. Wood, former military governor of Cuba, today authorized the following statement in regard to to criticism of his administration made by D. B. Hill at the Tilden club reunion in New York last night:

"The statement made by Mr. Hill shows either a most profound ignorance of the subject to which he refers or an absolute disregard for the truth. If he had ascertained the facts and desired to state the truth he would not have made the statement which he is credited with having made."

WANT CONFERENCE

HOUSE WILL AGREE TO THE SENATE'S REQUEST.

THE CANAL BILL STRUGGLE

WILL BE FOUGHT OUT IN THE CONFERENCE.

PHILIPPINE BILL IN HOUSE

THE DAY'S PROCEEDINGS IN THE HOUSE.

Washington, June 20.—The house committee on interstate and foreign commerce today decided to recommend that the Isthmian canal bill, which passed the senate yesterday, go to conference without the preliminary of further reference to the committee or consideration in the house. The measure is on the speaker's table, and Chairman Hepburn will move non-concurrence in the senate amendment and agreeing to the conference already asked by the senate. It is rather expected that Messrs. Hepburn, Sherman, of New York, and Adamson, of Georgia, three strong supporters of the Nicaragua route will be the house conferees. If this recommendation is approved by the house the future struggle over the canal bill will be in conference.

HOUSE NON-CONCURS.

Washington, June 20.—The house has non-concurred in the senate amendment to the Nicaraguan canal bill and agreed to the conference asked for by the senate. Messrs. Hepburn, Fletcher and Davey were appointed conferees on behalf of the house.

IN THE SENATE.

Washington, June 20.—It was decided by the senate when it convened today that when it adjourned today it be until Monday next.

A partial conference report on the sundry-civil bill was presented by Mr. Allison and agreed to. The senate insisted upon its amendments still in disagreement and Messrs. Allison, Hale and Cockrell were named as conferees.

The senate agreed to the conference report on the military academy appropriation bill, thus finally disposing of the measure.

At 1 o'clock the senate, on motion of Mr. Warren, went into executive session further to consider the nomination of Captain Crozier to be chief of ordinance.

The senate in executive session confirmed the nomination of General Crozier to be chief of ordinance.

At 3:01 p. m. the senate adjourned until Monday.

IN THE HOUSE.

Washington, June 20.—The house met at 11 o'clock, today. A bill was passed to recognize the military service of the officers and enlisted men of the first regiment of Ohio light artillery. This regiment served three months at the opening of the civil war, but was never formally mustered into the United States service.

The consideration of the Philippine civil government bill then was resumed and Mr. Jones, of Vermont, resumed his speech. He argued that under the provisions of the bill the friar lands which the government was to purchase would find their way into the hands of corporations. He declared that, in his opinion, it would be better for the Filipino people to live under the present rule than to have imposed upon them the civil government proposed by the pending measure, which would enable that civil government to dispose of all the valuable franchises in the island, to strip the forests of their timber and to sell the agricultural lands to corporations and syndicates. Mr. Jones devoted considerable time to the discussion of the question of the ability of the Filipino people for self government.

He quoted Prof. Schurman, president of the first commission, to the effect that the Filipino people desired independence, were entitled to it, were capable of governing themselves and were entitled to self government.

"Does the gentleman think Buencamino capable of self-government?" asked Mr. Crumpacker, of Indiana.

"I think if Buencamino's moral character was as strong as his intellectual power he would be a very great man," replied Mr. Jones.

Mr. Hamilton, of Michigan, also a member of the insular committee, followed with a set speech in support of the bill.

Mr. Jones referred to the statement issued by Secretary Root yesterday giving $170,000,000 as the total cost of the United States, of our control of the Philippines. He said that in making up the account he had no doubt the secretary of war, "the rankest partisan of them all," had excluded every possible item in order to reduce the amount to a minimum. But even the astute secretary of war, he said, had furnished no estimate of the blood our possession of the Philippines had cost. He thought fully 100,000 Filipinos had perished directly or indirectly as a result of the war waged against them and that 10,000 American lives had been lost or wrecked.

Mr. Jones took up the charges made against General Smith and Major Waller of cruelty in Samar.

"Why is it?" he asked, addressing the other side of the chamber, "that you criticise and court martial Schley, but yet will not touch a hair in the head of those who have confessed to participating in these diabolical outrages? Why criticise an officer of the navy and refuse to listen to criticisms of an officer of the army?"

"It is the indiscriminate criticism of the army that we protest against," interjected Mr. Steele, of Indiana.

"There has been no such indiscriminate criticism," answered Mr. Williams, of Illinois. "It has been a recital of specific cases."

"It is not the soldiers who should be held up to execration," declared Mr. Jones, "but those who ordered such outrages and those cowards who seek to smother them."

Mr. Jones was warmly congratulated by his party colleagues as he closed his speech.

BIG GAIN IN POPULATION

WILL BE SHOWN BY NEW CITY DIRECTORY.

Handsome Volume, Out Early Next Week, Contains 27,060 Names, Making Population 80,000.

The 1902 edition of the Fort Wayne city directory, which will be issued early in the coming week, will demonstrate in convincing manner the rapid pace at which Fort Wayne is forging forward in the matter of population. Upon the basis usually employed by directory authorities in estimating population, there are now very nearly 80,000 people residing in the city at this time.

The new directory contains 27,060 names, a gain of 3,668 as compared with the edition of 1901, and by using a lower multiple than is employed in any other directory in the United States, this gives Fort Wayne a population of 54,120. The multiples usually employed range from 2½ to as high as 3, and Mrs. Andrews, the local representative of R. L. Polk & Co., stated today that while she felt the multiple 2 used did not give the city full credit for its population, it was preferable to have the figures conservative instead of making the claim too high.

The new book contains valuable features not heretofore incorporated, and it is larger than any of its twenty-eight predecessors, as well as more handsomely bound. The new street numbers are given wherever it has been possible to do so.

Mrs. Andrews had just had access to a copy of an old Fort Wayne directory of 1861-2, from which some interesting comparisons are made. The book forty years ago contained 3,200 names, and the publishers estimated at that time there were 14,500 people in the city. Of the business houses represented in the advertising columns, but two are identical with those of today—Alfred Hattersley, plumber, and the Fort Wayne Lumber company, owned by A. Beaver. Many other institutions are yet in existence under the names then used, but different persons are now at the head of them.

JOHANN MOST SENTENCED.

New York, June 20.—Johann Most, who was convicted on a charge that he printed an incendiary article in a newspaper conducted by him, was sentenced today to serve one year in the penitentiary. The article was printed at the time President McKinley was shot. The case was carried to the court of appeals, which confirmed the judgment of the lower court.

Miss Gertrude Mitchell, of Chicago, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bartley, of East Creighton avenue.

RELIGION IS ALL

GERMAN EMPEROR MAKES A REMARKABLE SPEECH.

PIETY STRENGTH OF STATE

SPEAKS OF GREETING OF THE POPE TO HIM.

TWO CREEDS WORK TOGETHER

GERMANY'S GREATNESS RESTS ON THE FEAR OF GOD.

Aix-La-Chapelle, Prussia, June 20.—A striking speech on religion was delivered by Emperor William at the city hall here yesterday, after his arrival from Bonn, accompanied by the empress and the crown prince, Frederick William. After observing that the city was the cradle of the German empire, Charlemagne, on whom Rome conferred the dignity of a Roman Caesar, having fixed the seal of government here, the emperor said:

FORGOT THE EMPIRE.

"What, however, his powerful personality was able to effect, namely combining the office of Roman emperor with that of a Germanic king, was denied his successors, who, striving to uphold the world-wide imperium, forgot the cause of Germania, so that little by little the German land and people decayed and the Roman empire of German nationality fell to pieces. Now, however, another empire has come to life and its tasks are different from those of ancient days. Confined in their outward limits to the borders of their country the Germans have settled down to the work which has fallen upon them. In these days the young empire is strengthening itself and confidence in it is ever increasing. The mighty German army constitutes the support of the peace of Europe. In conformity with the character of their race, the Germans have kept themselves within bounds, far outside the world concerned, in order to be wholly unfettered at home. Our tongue is passing beyond the seas. Every thought of science is first turned to account by us, to be afterwards adopted by other nations. This is the world-wide imperium after which Germanic genius strives.

FOUNDED ON FEAR OF GOD.

"But it must not be forgotten that the empire was rooted in simplicity and fear of God. I look to all, priests and laymen, to help me uphold religion among the people, in order that the German name may preserve its health and strength. This applies equally to the two creeds, Catholic and Protestant.

"It is with pride and joy that I am able to tell you that the pope said to my special ambassador who went to Rome on the occasion of the holy father's jubilee that he had always kept a high opinion of the piety of the Germans, and especially of that of the German army. The pope asked my ambassador to tell his sovereign that the country in Europe where control, order and discipline still prevailed, with respect for authority and regard for the church, and where the church could live, was the German empire, and for that the papal see was indebted to the German emperor.

CREEDS HAVE BUT ONE AIM.

"This justifies me," continued Emperor William, "in saying that our two great creeds must while living side by side keep in view their one great aim—to uphold and strengthen the fear of God and reverence for religion. Whether we are moderns or whether we labor in this or that field does not matter at all. He who does not found his life on religion is a lost man. I rejoice that I have placed my whole empire, my people and my army, as well as myself and my house, beneath the cross and under the protection of Him who said: 'Heaven and earth shall pass away, but My word shall not pass away.'"

Emperor William concluded with calling for three cheers for Aix-la-Chapelle.

IRISH WILL MOURN.

London, June 20.—The United Irish league is preparing to keep coronation day as "A day of mourning for Ireland." The district council of Clare-Morris, County Mayo, has resolved to hoist a black flag over the council chamber June 26 and June 27 and has issued an invitation to the other councils to join in thus celebrating the "coronation of the English king to whose government the people of this country are so much indebted for famines, coffin-ships, coercion and castle rule."

Miss Josephine Zartman has gone to Dayton, Ohio, to visit with friends.

TAKE UP FRANCHISE TONIGHT

COUNCIL TO VOTE ON AMENDED FLEMING GRANT.

Councilman Miller Returns and Will Vote for Franchise—City Hall Notes.

The city council will meet tonight in special session to pass upon the revised franchise for the Fleming interurban electric road. Councilman Miller has returned to the city from his western trip and will vote for the adoption of the ordinance. A general investigation has not shown that there will be any change in the votes of the councilmen who passed the previous ordinance and the best information obtainable is that the ordinance will be passed in its present form by a vote of 17 to 2. Councilman Hench is out of the city and Councilmen Hosey and Baker of the Second ward indicate that they will again vote against the passage of the ordinance giving a right of way on East Berry street. These gentlemen do not want to be regarded as obstructionists and vote according to the wishes of their constituents in their ward. There was a rumor that the Berry street objectors would resort to extreme measures to prevent the passage of the ordinance tonight but present indications are that the rumor was not well based.

ABOUT THE CITY HALL.

The board of works held a meeting last night at which principally routine business was transacted. The contract with a Cincinnati firm for furnishing 2,887 street signs was approved, the resolution for opening Sherman and Oakland streets was confirmed there being no kickers present, on the contrary a lengthy communication was received from interested parties asking that the streets be opened immediately; several petitions asking for permission to build sidewalks under private contracts were granted and the city engineer was instructed to prepare plans for sidewalks on East Williams street and Wabash avenue.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock Health Commissioner Macbeth and Doctors Schick and Wallace paid a visit to the Bash Packing house and commenced a critical examination of the premises. The health office has been in receipt of many complaints concerning the unsanitary condition of the establishment and a thorough investigation has been determined upon. Last year similar complaints were made and resulted in large quantities of objectionable stuff being removed from the premises.

The contractors have fairly started on the work of laying the pavement on East Wayne street and the asphalters will commence work some time next week. The brick contractors have received notice that their supply of cement would be shipped today which, if true, will enable them to commence work some time next week. The board of works have adopted a rule requiring contractors to have their material at hand before commencing work so that there can be no excuse for delay on the account of lack of material.

License Inspector Tremmell says that every saloonkeeper in the city has a city license except one, and against that one an affidavit has been filed and the trial will be heard at police court next Monday. Officer Tremmell says he can not understand why the county licenses can not be kept up-to-date in the same manner. He says that he finds no trouble whatever in keeping licenses paid up—that all he finds necessary to do is to notify delinquents that twenty-four hours is all the grace they can expect, let them know that he means business and that ends it.

The island of Sikhalin, the great penal colony of Russia, has splendid forests of fire and pine.

HANNA AND BURTON IN TRUCE

CLEVELAND LEADERS AGREE ON A DIVISION.

Burton Will Stay in Congressional Race and Boss District and Hanna the County.

Washington, June 20.—Senator Hanna and Representatives Burton and Dick held a conference this afternoon over the controversy over Burton's accepting the renomination from the Cleveland district. After the conference it was stated that a satisfactory adjustment was assured and that Burton would remain a candidate. Although another conference is to be held it is expected that the basis of settlement will be that the county committee will conduct the county campaign and that Mr. Burton will organize the congressional committee to conduct his campaign.

CARDINAL GIUSEPPE SARTO, WHO MAY BE THE NEXT POPE.

He is a native of northern Italy and is sixty-seven years of age. His present office is that of patriarch of Venice.

TWO RELIGIONS.

A woman sat by a hearth side place
Reading a book, with a pleasant face.
'Till a child came up with a childish frown
And pushed the book saying, "Put it down."
Then the mother, slapping his curly head,
Said "Troublesome child, go off to bed;
A great deal of Christ's life I must know
To train you up as a child should go."
And the child went off to bed to cry
And denounce religion—by and by.

Another woman bent o'er a book
With a smile of joy and an intent look,
'Till a child came up and jogged her knee,
And said of the book, "Put it down—take me."
Then the mother sighed as she stroked his head,
Saying softly, "I never shall get it read;
But I'll try by loving to learn His will,
And His love into my child instill."
That child went to bed without a sigh
And will love religion—by and by.
—The Ram's Horn.

WILLING TO HELP.

A burglar who had entered a minister's house at night was disturbed by the awakening of the occupant of the room he was in. Drawing his knife, he said: "If you stir, you are a dead man. I am hunting for money."

"Let me get up and strike a light," said the minister, "and I'll hunt with you."

Chicago city council is contemplating the establishing of nine small parks for the benefit of the "no-room-to-live" gang.

NEWS OF THE POLICE.

Officer Elliott last midnight picked up a stray bicycle on Barr street. The owner can have the same by calling for it.

Peter Stenger, owner of a machine shop on East Superior street, reports that some one stole a spirit level from his shop last evening.

Bertha Wagner reports that she left her wheel in front of Wolf & Dessauer's store last evening while she went inside to do some trading and that when she came out it was gone. The police department picked up a wheel yesterday, but it was not in front of Wolf & Dessauer's, but in front of Eurode's where the machine was found, and it is believed that it is the same wheel.

If anyone finds himself shy a coat today he can probably recoup by going to the police station. A coat, with no one inside of it, was picked up on Broadway last night.

A stray horse was picked up and stabled at Bricker's Columbia street barn last night.

A young man, who gave no name, went to a boarding house at No. 85 Brackenridge street yesterday and engaged a room. Later he returned and still later went away and did not return. And again still later John M. Ryan, a roomer in the same house, missed a gold watch and several gold rings and since then Mr. Ryan and the police have been trying to make connections with the young man and the rings.

For the first time in a year or more Anton Kalbacher was made the victim of another robbery. There was a time when no issue of a Fort Wayne weekly paper was considered complete unless it contained some reference to a robbery or burglary at one or the other of Mr. Kalbacher's business establishments. Since the genial gentleman has retired from everything except the feed business he has been less victimized. The extent of this recent raid is not yet particularized, but the police department is investigating.

RETURNS TO FORT WAYNE.

He expects to remain in Fort Wayne and has offers of several situations under consideration. Mr. Ligget was formerly ticket agent of the Lake Shore and Lake Erie railroads in this city.

MR. M'DONALD IN CHARGE.

E. H. McDonald this morning assumed his duties as assistant secretary of the Fort Wayne Trust company, to which position he was elected by the directors on Wednesday. Mr. McDonald will retain the ownership of the City Trucking company, but the active management of the business will be entrusted to his son, George McDonald, who has been connected with the company for the past two years.

Hon. and Mrs. W. P. Breen and Mrs. P. J. McDonald returned last evening from Notre Dame, where they attended the commencement exercises at the university.

COFFEE SENSE.

To Drink, or Not to Drink, the Question.

A prominent St. Paul woman comments on coffee as follows:

"While I was drinking coffee I was troubled with sleeplessness and palpitation of the heart. I began to feel suspicions of coffee poison and having no desire to drug myself, realized how inconsistent it was for me to continue the use of anything that helped to break me down, so I quit coffee and began using Postum Coffee.

Now I sleep well and consequently feel refreshed, and am much strengthened. Palpitation of the heart has ceased and altogether life seems worth living.

Some of our family like a little coffee mixed in with the Postum; that, of course, is much healthier than the old fashioned coffee alone."

It is true that very strong coffee of the best flavor has a little more fascinating taste to some palates than pure Postum. On the other hand, there are thousands of people that prefer the flavor of Postum, pure and simple. If coffee agrees perfectly, and people are not ill in any way, there seems no good reason why coffee should be discontinued unless there is a fear of disease finally setting up from the continued use of a drug. On the other hand, if any member of a family is ailing in stomach, bowels, kidneys, eyes or the nervous system, such a one should immediately quit ordinary coffee and take Postum Food Coffee. A sure result can be depended upon and a gradual feeling of health and strength will come from the change. Health, of course, is worth almost everything on earth.

Some people are so constituted that it is hard for them to give up a habit even if good health is the reward, but it is perfectly easy to leave off coffee when one can have a well boiled cup of Postum in its place.

Mr. Cleveland may not be able to get himself elected to the presidency again, even should he care to, but he is able to give the democratic party some good advice on how to elect some other democrat.

Cleveland and Hill shook hands cordially at the Tilden club meeting in New York and each declared he was glad to see the other looking so well. That's the kind of harmony all democrats should take for pattern. The man who is scanning the democratic moon for a night of blood will see none.

The senate says the Panama route is the best for the canal, provided the president shall also declare as much. It is rather singular that a matter which a commission spent millions of money and many years to determine scientifically should be left to the arbitration of one man who claims no special or expert knowledge and who may decide in a day what is what.

Even a king cannot have his own way always. Edward, of Britain, etc., is kept penned up in the palace grounds with the Ascot races going on a few miles away, all because it is believed some anarchist may practice marksmanship at him and it is desired to preserve him for the big show next week. It would bother any thinking anarchist a deal to tell what anarchy would gain by the king's death or what it will lose if he continues to live. But anarchists do not reason much when it comes to slaying a king or a president. They simply shoot or stab, as the case may be, and let the horrified world do the thinking.

Senator Orville H. Platt, of Connecticut, one of the firmest of the republican supporters of the president's Cuban reciprocity measure, is not yet ready to give up the fight. He believes the obduracy of the beet sugar senators has gone to the point where it deserves no consideration. He would bring the measure to a vote in the senate and force the anti-Cuban crowd to go on record against a measure approved by the republican party, urged by the martyred McKinley and urged again by President Roosevelt, not to speak of the state and congressional conventions of republicans which have endorsed the Cuban bill and approved the president's support of it. It would be an awkward plight for the sugar crowd. For instance, as Mr. Roosevelt pointed out Thursday to the two Nebraska senators, who had called on him, they are opposing reciprocity with Cuba while during the present week the Nebraska republican convention gave most hearty endorsement to the acts and to the policies of the president.

QUARREL ENDS IN MURDER.

Valley City, N. D., June 20.—Jennie Daley was shot and killed by William Bennett, her partner in a restaurant, who then committed suicide. The affair occurred at midnight and Bennett fired six times at the woman after a violent quarrel. They have been business partners for many years.

IN JUSTICES' COURTS.

Justice Yancey was busy this morning trying to cultivate proficiency in a new dialect of the Assyrian language. Mary Abraham and John Abdallah had a session which cost John $5 and costs and cost Mary $1 and costs, both of which fines were paid. The parties came here from Alexandria and are both peddlers of Arabic wares. They had some sort of a pooling arrangement and the settlement provoked a fight. Mary brought action against John for assault and battery, which cost John the aforenamed five and then John began action for provoke, which cost Mary a single plank. It was a plain case of Mary and John and both left the court room apparently well satisfied. So was the judge.

Charles Fox, the plumber, had some trouble with Edward Robertson last night and in the course of the trouble Fox admits that he gave Robertson what he needed. The aftermath is a suit of Robertson against Fox for assault and battery. Justice France will hear the evidence on Monday, the defendant being meanwhile released on his own recognizance.

Fred Blaising, of New Haven, for whose arrest a warrant on a charge of assault and battery on the father of his lately divorced wife was issued in this city, insists that his plea of guilty in a New Haven justice court was sufficient to satisfy the law and the law's representatives. To The Sentinel he stated today that the county prosecutor agreed over the telephone to the arrangement. Blaising says he settled all costs in the case. He further denies that he is in the saloon business, a pursuit he abandoned last September.

BLAZE ON EAST LEWIS STREET.

Fire of unknown origin practically destroyed the small barn on the premises of John Mooney, at 855 East Lewis street, shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon, and the loss will be $150. The residence of Charles Nahrwold, at 1164 Harmer street, was scorched to the extent of $50 by the same blaze.

FINISH IS PLAIN.

John Monihan was arrested this afternoon for drunkenness. This makes Mr. Monihan's third offense since Judge Dreibelbiss assumed the city's judicial reins and it won't take much of a prophet to make a close guess at John's finish tomorrow morning.

LOCAL LINES.

Dr. W. W. Barnett returns this afternoon from a professional trip to Angola.

Louis Fox and family went to Rome City last evening to occupy their cottage for the summer.

Judge Chapin, W. P. Denny, Judge Taylor and T. J. Logan, the latter acting as master in chancery, will go to Chicago next week to be present at the taking of depositions in an important patent infringement suit.

Miss Rose Eggeman was pleasantly surprised at her home, 623 Taylor street, last evening, in honor of the eighteenth anniversary of her birth. Dancing, music and cards were the pleasures of the evening, and luncheon was served at a late hour.

Young Man,

If you want one of the suits we are selling at half price, come after it in the morning, if you can. We urge you to come in the morning so we can give you better attention.

DR. DICKEY IS ENDORSED

ALLEGED CRITICISMS ARE STRONGLY REFUTED.

Warsaw Business Men Pass Resolution Expressing Satisfaction With Winona.

Winona Lake, Ind., June 20.—Winonians, both in the park and at Warsaw, have been stirred up over reports sent to the Indianapolis papers criticising Dr. S. C. Dickey, manager of the Winona assembly, for trying to establish a technical department in Indianapolis. Yesterday afternoon a representative meeting was held in the offices of J. H. Brubaker, of Warsaw. There were in attendance leading business men, including Mayor Richardson and many who had subscribed toward the $12,000 fund. The following resolution was unanimously adopted and refutes all misstatements:

"Resolved, That having heard the statement of Dr. Sol C. Dickey as to the plans and intentions of the establishment and maintenance of the proposed 'Winona Agricultural and Technical Institute' at Winona park, we hereby express our satisfaction with the plans as stated and declare that in our opinion said plans cover all promises heretofore made by the Winona assembly and summer school association to the citizens of Warsaw and that the progress thus far made in perfecting said plans are satisfactory and encouraging.

"J. H. Brubaker, Chairman.
"C. F. Coleman, Secretary."

The Winona Agricultural and Technical Institute will open at Winona Lake Sept. 16 with eight teachers and a limit of 100 students. The buildings are all in readiness and the school will open with bright prospects. The Indianapolis arsenal school will be a technical school, while the one at Winona Lake will be both agricultural and technical.

POPULARITY OF GRAY HAIR.

"My next book shall have a white-haired hero, and he won't be old, either," says a Chicago novelist to the Chicago Tribune. "I am convinced that if a book appeared whose hero boasts of silvery locks and a youthful face its popularity would be assured. No publisher need be afraid to risk his money on it. It would be the talk of the drawing rooms, and sentimental schoolgirls would rapturously devour its pages, following the white-headed hero with unslaked interest through to the end.

"There is a fascination about the young man with gray hair. At a gathering the other night I counted a dozen white heads, all giving background to faces glowing with youthful vitality. These men seemed the most sought of any in the room; in fact, the only men I have heard women rave about this winter have been the white-haired ones.

"Why is it? That is what I have been trying to study out, and I have come to the conclusion that it is owing to the look of maturity it gives a man, minus the disagreeable accompaniments of age. We women like to play we are children. We like to look up to a man with reverence, feeling that he is older and wiser than we are. But it spoils the romance if he limps from rheumatism or wabbles with a superabundance of flesh, or complains of his eyes or teeth or his digestion.

"I think a woman's ideal man—though she will never admit it—is one who has been through all life's experiences. She is content that he should have the experiences if he will but tell her of them. A woman naturally yields to the judgment of a man who seems older and wiser than herself. The gray head gives all the appearance of age and experience, while the youthful face lends itself to dreams of romance. The combination is irresistible."

MONKEYING WITH MILK.

Dr. Eugene Buehler, city sanitarian, will request the city council to pass an ordinance that will give the city health board authority to control the sale of milk preservatives in Indianapolis. Dr. Buehler thinks his ordinance, if passed, will provide an effective safeguard against the use of preservatives.

His plan is to have an ordinance that will prohibit the sale of preservatives to dairymen, and to compel druggists to report to the health board every sale of any sort of compound that could be used to prevent fermentation in milk. Dr. Buehler believes dairymen will make an attempt to use preservatives this summer, and he is determined to spoil their plans, says the Indianapolis News.

Dr. Buehler has submitted his plan to City Attorney Jose. He received today an opinion from the city attorney that the proposed ordinance would be legal.

If the ordinance merely prohibited the sale of preservatives to dairymen they might have someone else purchase it for them, or say the compounds were to be used for some legitimate purpose; but Dr. Buehler believes that if the sales are all reported to the board of health men can keep an eye on the dairymen. In addition, each bottle of the preservative, under the ordinance, will have to be labeled, so there can be no mistake as to its contents. Dairymen cannot then contend that they did not know they were using an injurious substance.

If this ordinance passes Dr. Buehler believes he can prevent the sale of "patent" preparations, now sold as milk thickeners, milk sweeteners and so on.

A PATIENT BRIDE.

The following curious marriage notice appeared recently in the London Times: "On Tuesday, the 16th inst., at Bottesfield, Lincolnshire, John Kirk, an occasional preacher in the Methodist connection, to Susanna Seaton, of Burringham, mantua maker. The patient bride had kept company near two years with a blacksmith of the same place, and was actually published with him in the church the very Sunday preceding her marriage, but for the reasons best known to herself eloped next day with the preacher. So true is it that we know not what a day may bring forth!"

FOUL PLAY SUSPECTED.

New York, June 20.—The body of a twelve-year-old girl was found today in Gravesend bay. Several cuts and bruises on the head and hands looked as if they might have been inflicted before death, and the police ordered an investigation to determine whether the girl was drowned or murdered and the body thrown into the bay.

HOMEOPATHISTS ELECT.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 20.—After a lively contest Dr. Joseph P. Cobb, of Chicago, was today elected president of the American Institute of Homeopathy, which is now holding its fifty-eighth annual convention in this city. A number of interesting papers were read by prominent physicians at today's session of the convention.

Canada has sent a veterinary quarantine officer to England to apply the tuberculosis test to all cattle over six months old intended for export to the dominion for breeding purposes.

"QUARTER-SAWED OAK."

What is "quarter-sawed" oak, or quartered oak, of which we hear so much? What is the difference between that oak that makes it so beautiful and ordinary oak, which is nothing to speak of?

Oak, like other woods, has a grain running up and down the stick, this "grain" being merely the ducts through which sap travels. Unlike many other woods, however, oak also has a sort of flaky grain that runs lengthwise with the stick and radially, from center to circumference, like the spokes of a wheel. This grain can be seen in furniture if one will look at the ends of the pieces of oak of which it is made.

If the log be sawed in such a way that the cut is at a slight angle to this radial grain, broad flakes will be seen running over the face of the board, greatly adding to its beauty when finished, polished and varnished. The aim in quarter sawing is to saw the log so that all cuts shall be at angles as slight as possible to these radial grains. For this reason the log is first "quartered;" that is to say, sawed twice through its center into four pieces, the right angles of which are, of course, at the theoretical center of the log.

This style of cutting is wasteful and troublesome; hence the extra cost of "quarter-sawed" as against plain oak.

The bird's-eye figure in maple is produced by cutting around the log, and continuing until the log is used up. A huge knife, and not a saw, is used for the purpose, the wood being peeled off like a great shaving; hence bird's-eye veneers yards in length are made. Few species produce this figure. That obtained from the sugar maple is the finest in our country.

Curly walnut is the root and that portion of the trunk just above the ground. The log is sawn in the ordinary way. Curly walnut is obtained from all the species.

In connection with the increase of the Maryland National guard provided for by the legislature an order has been issued for the establishment of a regular hospital corps.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, June 20.—Bullish sentiment pervaded the grain pits at the opening today on the influence of strong cables and wet weather. July wheat started 1/8c to 3/8c up at 73 7/8c to 74c and advanced to 74 1/8@74 1/4c. Rains fell over most of the wheat country. Bad weather was reported from England and although fair weather prevailed in France prices there were 1c to 1 1/2c higher. There were some small offerings on the bulge and July slipped off to 73 3/4@73 7/8c and steadied. Local receipts were 25 cars, 2 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 293 cars, making a total for the three points of 318 cars, against 245 last week and 293 a year ago. Argentine shipments were 704,000 bushels, compared to 304,000 bushels last week.

General reports of rains arrived as the session advanced and harvest advices told of much water in the wheat. The result was an advance for July wheat to 74 1/2@74 5/8c. Some liquidation at top figures took off a little of the gain, but July closed strong, 5/8c higher, at 74 1/4c.

Corn started fairly active and stronger on wet weather and the wheat bulge. July opened 1/4c to 3/8c higher at 65 1/4c to 65 7/8c and sold at 66c. Liquidation for profit by a few small longs, together with a slight pressure by the bull party depressed July back quickly to 65 1/4c. September was in very good demand early. Receipts were increased at 229 cars, 22 of contract grade.

Corn fluctuated after the lead of wheat late in the session and July closed firm, 1/2c up, at 65 1/2c.

Oats opened firm with a good commission house demand. Selling was only scattered early and on small receipts, a continued good cash demand and light offerings prices held well. July started 1/8@1/4c to 1/8@3/8c up at 39 3/8c to 39 3/4c and hung about 39 5/8c. Receipts were 161 cars.

Provisions were strong at the opening on a strong early hog market and a good demand from packers. The closing hog market eased somewhat, but after a small dip in provisions the whole list recovered strength and held strong. July pork opened 10c higher at $17.85, the top price of the year, and eased to $17.77 1/2 and regained its opening figure. July lard started 5c up at $10.40 and sold at $10.42 1/2, and July ribs 2 1/2c to 5c up at $10.65 to $10.67 1/2 and sold at $10.70.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, June 20.—The opening trading in stocks was quiet and prices were changed only fractionally. St. Paul was carried up nearly a point and a sale of 3,000 shares of United States Steel depressed it 1/4. The small changes otherwise were mixed.

Room shorts became alarmed at the buying of St. Paul which advanced it 1 1/4 and covered in the general list, lifting prices well above yesterday's close. The Southwestern group were conspicuously firm. Chicago and Eastern Illinois advanced 2 1/4 and Illinois Central, St. Louis Southwestern preferred, Cotton Oil preferred and Lead a point. Some profit-taking followed the advance and the leaders all lost substantial fractions again. Colorado Fuel was exceptionally weak, declining 3 to 92 1/4.

The market became intensely dull when the selling movement ceased and did not sympathize much with an advance in United States Steel to 38. Colorado Fuel rallied over 2 points, butthe general movement was hardly noticeable. Louisville and Nashville, St. Louis and San Francisco first preferred, Crucible Steel and North American lost 1@1 1/2. The Wabash stocks came into demand at advances of a point.

Bonds were steady at noon.

AN ELECTRIC BURGLAR TRAP.

Electricity operates a burglar's trap, consisting of a camera and a flashlight apparatus, installed recently in Chicago. The up-to-date battery is set off unconsciously by the burglar himself. The device, it has been found, frightens away the marauder with the dazzling flash and retains some very important testimony of his visit for future use in the bargain.

Most burglars would prefer to face a battery of firearms than this apparently harmless-looking contrivance.

The camera used for the purpose is placed facing the window or door, where the burglar may be expected to enter. It is focused carefully upon the window frame or doorway, and the lens is uncapped. The flashlight is placed nearby and behind the camera. The electrical apparatus is so arranged that the opening of the window or door will close the circuit and ignite the flashlight powder.

The wires can also be arranged so that when the burglar steps upon a board beneath the window or even upon the carpet the light will also be set off.

In the tests which have been made some excellent photographs were obtained. They showed in every case the would-be marauder exactly framed in the window. A similar apparatus has been used successfully for photographing animals.

BAD FILIPINO CAPTURED.

Manila, June 20.—Pedro Feleiz, the leader of the ladrones, who captured and subsequently cut to pieces a sergeant, two corporals and four privates o fthe Fifth cavalry at Binangonan, Rizal province, May 30, has been captured. He is still suffering from a wound inflicted by the soldiers.

HALLIE ERMINIE RIVES AND HER FAVORITE HOUNDS.

This picture shows Miss Hallie Erminie Rives, the popular novelist, at her home in Kentucky. She is fond of outdoor life and is always accompanied on her walks and drives by her favorite hounds. Miss Rives' new novel, "Hearts Courageous," has recently come from the press. It promises to be as successful as her previous book, "A Furnace of Earth."

CASTELLANES IN POLITICS.

The Castellane family of France will be well represented in the next house of deputies. Count Boniface, who needs no American introduction, was re-elected on Sunday, and his brothers, Counts Jean and Stanislas, have also been elected. This is the first time that three brothers have been returned simultaneously, and has given occasion to the following expression from the ministerial organ in Paris: "As Napoleon carved kingdoms for his brothers, Count Boni is berthing his family in politics. This is a piquant fact, worth noticing."

WOMEN DRUNKARDS.

"There are more women drunkards today than there were 25 years ago," said the bishop of London at the great meeting of the London Diocesan branch of the Church of England Temperance society held in Exeter hall, "and there is no work in the temperance cause more pressing than the work among the women." More than one speaker gave proof of the truth of the bishop's statement from personal experience among inebriates, and Mrs. Turner, wife of the bishop of Islington, declared that the vice was on the increase, even among women who belong to comfortable and well-to-do homes, reports the London Telegraph.

In the course of his speech Dr. Ingram expressed his satisfaction that the habitual drunkard was to be dealt with at last in the promised licensing bill, and said he was very glad that the poor husband who was cursed with a drunken wife was to be relieved in the same way as a wife who was cursed with a drunken husband. He felt the greatest sympathy for the man who had been driven to a life of crime by being chained to a drunken wife. He was very glad, too, that the bill also touched the question of drinking clubs, a greater evil in the east end of London than the public house, for there the men were uncontrolled. Teetotalism in this country had become even fashionable. "I well remember," added his lordship, "the time when to confess to be a teetotaler was to be regarded with mild surprise and treated more or less as a lunatic. I well remember the day when temperance meetings were regarded as positively dangerous gatherings. My first experience of a temperance gathering, in 1881, is forcibly engraved on my memory. My entrance was greeted by a brickbat that just missed my head. There is no doubt that the complete revolution of opinion as regards the temperance question has been caused by the temperance workers, but the work is not yet done."

PHYSICIAN AND PATIENT.

In an action brought in New York by Daniel D. Dunkle against Charles A. McAllister to recover damages for assault and battery the issue arose as to whether plaintiff's injuries were caused by a rifle bullet or by a blow from a rifle. Dunkle testified as to the character of his hurt, and then the defendant called the physician who had treated him, claiming that the plaintiff had waived the provisions of the code of civil procedure, prohibiting a doctor from disclosing what he learns from a patient in a professional capacity. The trial justice, however, would not allow the physician to testify, and on appeal his determination has been upheld by the third appellate division. Justice Kellogg, for the court, says: "No court, I believe, has yet gone so far as to hold that it is a waiver of this right to enjoin secrecy in an attending physician, when all that can be said is that the patient himself became a witness and told the character of the injury he was suffering from. That appears to be all the plaintiff did in this case. All the plaintiff says on his direct examination in this case having reference to any physician is: 'Dr. Vedder came and put plasters on,' and it was not sought by defendant to deny this statement by the testimony of the physician."

DEATH-DEALING MICROBES.

Microbes as death-dealing agencies present new possibilities to unscrupulous men, who, prompted by a spirit of revenge or retaliation, may seek to obliterate their victims in the most approved scientific way. Modern study of bacteriology has placed a new and terribly effective weapon in the hands of humanity. It is a weapon with which entire communities and towns may be stripped of their inhabitants. Wholesale deaths may be brought about without even directing suspicion toward the perpetrator of the crime, and, what is more, the man who seeks to deal out death in this way may select the specific disease he wishes to employ in carrying out his purpose. All of these menacing possibilities have developed through the advanced study of bacteria and the various uses, beneficial and otherwise, to which micro-organisms may be put.—Chicago Tribune.

GOULDS AND POLO.

The most interesting group of polo players in America, if not in the world, comprises George Gould, his two sons, Kingdon and Jay Gould, and Ben Nicholl, the latter one of the greatest generals and ablest backs in America. Lakewood, N. J., is the home of polo in America, and the two fine fields there are the scene each year of the greatest matches in the country. Besides the big open fields there is in the casino at Lakewold, an adjunct of Georgian court, the beautiful country home of George Gould, a polo ring with a tanbark arena as large as that in Madison Square garden.—Chicago Chronicle.

WANT TO RETIRE

OLD RAILWAY MEN APPLY FOR PENSIONS.

CHEAP FOURTH OF JULY RATES

TIME LIMIT THE LONGEST IN HISTORY OF RAILROADS.

WINONA TRAIN IN SERVICE

MAKES ITS FIRST EARLY RUN TO THIS CITY TOMORROW.

A pension examining board for the Pennsylvania Voluntary Relief association was in session here today, looking into the application of two employes of the Grand Rapids and Indiana company for retirement on the pension roll. Both applicants reside in Grand Rapids. The personnel of the examining board was Dr. A. W. Tucker, of Logansport; Dr. E. S. Russell, of Alliance, O., and Dr. Joseph Rhodes, of New Castle, Pa. While the doctors were not engaged in the examinations they were entertained by Drs. Wagner and Bickel. Dr. Tucker was stationed here several weeks last summer and became quite well acquainted with the Pennsylvania employes.

THE WINONA DUMMY.

The Winona "dummy" will go into service tomorrow and will make its first trip to this city early in the morning and during the remainder of the day make trips every ten minutes between Warsaw and the resort. The train will be in charge of Conductor F. E. Lininger and will be hauled by engine 607, with Engineer E. O. Bradley and Fireman C. H. Moore in the cab.

WILL BE FOUR TRAINS.

If all the tickets that have been issued for the annual excursion of the Pennsylvania employes are used tomorrow, the crowd will be the largest that has left the city upon a similar occasion in the history of the Grand Rapids and Indiana road. Trainmaster R. E. Casey is busy this afternoon selecting the crews and making other arrangements for the event. There will be four trains if there is a demand for that number and they will leave the city at 7:15, 7:30, 7:45 and 8 o'clock. If the crowd can be handled by three trains, the third one will not leave the depot until 8 o'clock. The locomotive and car shops will be closed down during the day and only a portion of the force in the round house will be on duty.

FOURTH OF JULY RATES.

The rates in Central Traffic territory for the Fourth of July are much better than were ever before offered, at least so far as time limit goes. The price decided upon is one fare for the round trip, with an extension of return privileges to and including Monday, July 7. Tickets will be on sale July 3 and 4. Notices of the foregoing were received at the various offices in the city this morning.

KIRBY WILL NOT COME HERE.

Michael Kirby will not come here to take the position in the Pittsburg shop office which was vacated by Ed Hobrock a few days ago. The position affords a better salary than the one held in Toledo by Mr. Kirby, but he has property interests there and other inducements which have caused him to reject the offer. Chief Clerk Reed is now looking elsewhere for a successor to Mr. Hobrock.

BIG ENGINE BROKE DOWN.

No. 18, one of the big class E-2 passenger engines on the Pittsburg, which has distinguished herself by making record-breaking runs, was taken into the shops this morning for repairs. Yesterday morning, while bringing down mail train No. 18 from Chicago, the engine broke her frame. This is an accident that is always regretted, because it is hard to repair. The engine must go into the shop and be completely stripped. A class X engine is hauling trains 18 and 11 during the absence of No. 18.

WABASH OFFICE CHANGES.

Indianapolis Daily News: "It is understood the general offices of the Wabash reorganized system are to be divided equally between Toledo and St. Louis. Toledo is to be the great northern terminus of the system. Locomotive works are to be built at Toledo, it is said."

ADDITIONS TO FORCE.

The Fort Wayne Electric works made another addition to the working force in the factory this morning. Victor Nussbaum, a Purdue student, took a position in the testing department; William Bryant and Charles Anderson, machinists, took positions with Foreman Tony Miller; Charles Richards was given employment in the coil department, and Henry B. Klever, Charles Edmundson and B. E. Bush went to work in the foundry.

MAKING GRAND DISTRICTS.

The International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths is to be reorganized into grand districts, each state being a separate district and all forming the international body on plans similar to the formation of the United States. The first district is the state of Ohio, which has just been organized with grand office headquarters at Columbus. John Slocum, general president of the International Brotherhood, who did the work, was in the city a few days ago and said he would probably form a grand brotherhood for Indiana in a few weeks.

A NUMBER OF UNFORTUNATES.

M. J. Grove, one of the oldest employes in point of service in the Pittsburg shops, had his left foot injured yesterday by a piece of steel falling upon it.

N. C. Petgen, of the same shop, was injured in a similar manner yesterday, his left foot being bruised and sprained by a steel plate falling upon it.

A. J. Hollenbacker, of the machine shop, was injured by a fall, though not seriously.

James Burns, of the Wabash boiler shop, was cutting stay bolts out of a boiler, when a piece of steel flew off the chisel and embedded itself in the index finger of his left hand. The piece was dislodged with difficulty leaving an ugly gash.

Machinist Harvey Stahl had a bone of one of his hands broken and the flesh badly cut and bruised yesterday afternoon. A driver shoe, which he was putting in position got beyond control and fell, crushing the member against the pit rail. Mr. Stahl went to the office of Dr. E. J. McOscar, where the hand was dressed and then to his home.

Ernest Elx, of the Wabash shops, got a hot scale in one of his eyes. It was removed by the shop "occulist," but not before the eye lid and ball were painfully burned.

Harry Byers, of the Pittsburg smith shop, had a foot bruised and sprained yesterday by a casting falling upon it.

ENGINE OUTPUT.

For the week ending today the Pittsburg shops repaired and turned out the following engines: Nos. 206, 168, 181, 277, 307 and 169. During the week the following were taken in for repairs: Nos. 18, 297, 154, 175, 35, 45 and 114. The output for the week is good, considering the fact that there were only five work days.

INSPECTING PUMP STATIONS.

Boilermakers William Leach and Ed Mennewisch are out on the spring inspection of the pumping stations and other plants where steam is employed along the line of the Pittsburg. Last night they completed division C, which is that portion of the line between this city and Crestline, and this morning they began work upon the west end of the road.

ORDERED STACKS OF BASS.

The Bass boiler shops yesterday booked an order from the Muncie, Hartford City and Fort Wayne Electric Railway company for three steel smoke stacks for the power plant to be erected at Eaton, Ind. The stacks will be sixty feet high.

FRANK MURPHY HURT.

Engineer Frank Murphy is confined to his home in Ashley as a result of an altercation in the cab with his fireman. The result of his injuries could not be learned here, but they are not supposed to be very serious. Mr. Murphy was employed on the Nickel Plate road for several years, resigning about a year ago to take a position with the Wabash.

Nickel Plate engine 38, which has been doing yard work for some time, went to the Stony Island shops yesterday for repairs.

The Haberkorn-Haley Manufacturing company shipped an engine to the Kenton Cracker company, Kenton, Ohio, yesterday.

Eli Slussman, night caller of Nickel Plate train crews, reported for duty last night, after a week's visit with his sister at South Whitley.

Work was commenced on the new train sheds of the Pennsylvania lines at Pittsburg on Monday. It will be three months before they are completed.

Machinist Charles Nolan, of the Pittsburg, will spend July and August in the west. He is afflicted with catarrh and hopes to get relief by the trip.

Two large galvanizing tanks will be built for the Flint & Walling Manufacturing company at the Bass boiler shops. The order was booked yesterday.

Mrs. Sullivan and George Sullivan, wife and son of Blacksmith James J. Sullivan, of the Wabash shops, went to Logansport today to spend a week with relatives.

The directors of the Chicago and Alton have declared a dividend of 2 per cent. on the preferred stock, payable July 1, making the dividend of the year 4 per cent.

President W. H. Canniff, of the Nickel Plate, passed through the city last night in his private car, on train No. 4. He was en route to Cleveland from Chicago.

Nickel Plate Brakeman W. H. Hockaday, who was east a month, reported for duty on the road this morning. Brakeman H. Imbody is off duty looking after private business.

One of the children of Conductor and Mrs. Frank Magill is suffering from an attack of scarlet fever. The conductor, who remained on duty on the road, is not permitted to go to his home.

Nickel Plate Brakeman C. W. Smitley, who had been down in the country a month with his mother, who is quite sick, returned to the city yesterday and reported for work on the road.

The anthracite coal strike is proving a benefit to Ohio, Indiana and Illinois roads, all handling immense quantities of bituminous coals, and the traffic is increasing as the strike is prolonged.

John Knapp and William Fuchs, machinists who were formerly employed in the Westinghouse works at Pittsburg, arrived in the city yesterday and this morning they took positions at the Bass works.

Baltimore and Ohio shopmen at Garrett have received an increase of from 5 to 10 per cent. in their wages which took effect June 1st. The increase was a voluntary one on the part of the railroad company.

E. O. Poole, who has charge of the tool room at the Wabash machine shop, is taking a few days' respite from his labors in the hopes of improving his health. He is not confined to the house, though feeling quite weak.

Fred Wilkinson, a tinner from Detroit, and Charles Swayne, a boilermakers' helper, took positions in the Wabash shops this morning. Mr. Swayne was formerly employed in that shop, quitting his position about six weeks ago.

Berne Stemen, of the Adams express office, depot branch, had a leg injured yesterday by a box falling upon him. The injury is not serious.

During the absence of Conductor Charles Ross, whose wife is very sick, Conductor James Rowan has a limited train run on the Pittsburg.

Engineer E. Blanchard is off duty on account of the death of his mother-in-law. Engineers D. Crimmons and D. L. Mason and Fireman C. F. Hohnholz have taken a lay off for the purpose of taking their families on the excursion to Home City tomorrow. They are Pennsylvania employes.

Concerning a former resident of Fort Wayne the Indianapolis Journal says: "Frank W. Morse, formerly master mechanic of the Wabash, now third vice president of the Grand Trunk, is making a great record on the latter road. He has introduced all modern appliances, and no road now runs better trains."

Bluffton News: "Homer Bartram has resigned his position at the Western Union office and will go to Fort Wayne next Wednesday to take a position as operator on the Pennsylvania railroad. Operators who enter the employ of that company have to undergo a physical examination as well as an examination on the book of rules."

Stenographer P. A. Thompson, of Master Mechanic M. E. Coutant's office, of the Wabash, has returned from Chicago, where he was in the hands of a specialist for a week, receiving treatment for weak eyes.

On July 1 the St. Louis and San Francisco will advance the pay of freight conductors to 3 cents per mile run and of brakemen to 2 cents per mile, which means an increase in operating expenses in round numbers of $100,000 per annum. Pay of passenger conductors was advanced some time ago.

There are twenty-one Young Men's Christian associations, with a membership of 111,066 on the lines of railways in the southwest, and the investment in buildings is $307,812. On July 1, the Elizabeth, Lexington and Big Sandy, the Kentucky and Southern Atlantic, the Ohio and Big Sandy and the Ohio River and Charleston, with an aggregate mileage of 203 and a capital of $4,800,000, will be consolidated preparatory to becoming a Chesapeake and Ohio line. The Pullman company has issued orders that the placing of banners on their cars is prohibited. It has grown to such an extent that the Pullman officials saw the damage to equipment was a serious matter.

It is stated that the new owners of the Western Maryland are understood to favor Joseph Ramsey, president of the Wabash, who is in personal charge of the Pittsburg extension, for president of the reorganized Western Maryland.

Conductor John C. Herslin, of the Nickel Plate, had an exciting time with a fractious horse yesterday. The animal became frightened on West Jefferson street, near Mr. Herslin's residence, and ran to the Swinney homestead, where it jumped a fence and ran three or four times around the lot, pulling the buggy with it. Mr. Herslin was thrown down and had one of his hands slightly injured. Otherwise there was no material damage.

C. A. Robbins, of the Pennsylvania telegraph office, has obtained a month's leave of absence to look into a position as train dispatcher which has been offered him by the Wheeling and Lake Erie road. If he accepts the position his headquarters will be in Canton, O. He is now in that city. Mr. Robbins has been employed a long while in the Pennsylvania offices and his associates there, while glad that he is to be advanced in rank, are sorry that advancement means removal from the city and the severance of the associations that have been so pleasant to them and to Mr. Robbins.

RED-HAIRED ROMANCE.

Here is a romance fit for the pen of a Laura Jean Libbey. The title should be: "They loved, but their hair was red." He lived at Sherbourne, N. Y., and she lived at Galeton, Pa. They became acquainted by correspondence, and when the right time came they exchanged photographs. He was so pleased with her picture that he asked her to meet him at Binghamton for the purpose of visiting a clergyman on official business. She was so pleased with his picture that she consented. He was waiting when her train reached Binghamton. At a glance he saw that her face was all that it had been represented to be, that her youth was self-evident, and that in form and manner she came up to all the specifications of the picture and the correspondence. Joy illuminated his countenance until he glanced at her hair. It was red. Then he ran.

At what he considered a safe distance he paused, and told her gently, but firmly, that they had made a mistake. He admitted her worth, but he could not marry a red-headed girl. She went her way, and he went his, "out of each other's lives," as they say in the novels.

One essential fact has been omitted thus far. He was red-haired also.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

HARMONY VOICED

CLEVELAND AND HILL HEARD AT GREAT MEETING.

SPEAK FOR OLD DEMOCRACY

CLEVELAND DECLARES THAT HE IS IN RETIREMENT.

WILL NOT ACCEPT HONORS

HILL OUTLINES PLATFORM FOR THE PARTY.

New York, June 20.—It was a grand sight for democrats last night and the beginning of a new era for the democratic party nationally when former President Grover Cleveland and former Governor David B. Hill met at the Tilden club in this city, shook hands cordially, greeted each other sincerely and then together, amid the cheers of a great gathering of democrats, walked side by side to the platform, where each delivered a great speech for democratic harmony.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

Mr. Cleveland, accompanied by Henry D. Hotchkiss, Joseph A. Bryan and John C. Calhoun, arrived about 8:40 o'clock. He was standing in the main room chatting with several members of the club when Mr. Hill arrived. The ex-senator walked up to the ex-president and extended his hand. Mr. Cleveland grasped it heartily as Mr. Hill remarked: "I am glad to see you, Mr. Cleveland."

CLEVELAND GLAD TO SEE HILL.

"I am glad, senator, to see you," replied the former president. "You are looking very well."

"I can say the same to you; you are looking remarkably well," rejoined Mr. Hill.

Then the two fell into a friendly chat which continued until the reception committee conducted them to the assembly room on the second floor.

The room was crushingly crowded before they entered and it was with much difficulty that, amid the wildest enthusiasm, they were able to reach their seats near the platform. Both Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Hill were in cheerful humor and sat talking to each other like two old friends who were really glad to meet again after a long absence, until President Dowling introduced Mr. Cleveland as the first speaker.

GREAT AUDIENCE CHEERS.

As the ex-president stepped upon the platform the entire audience sprang to its feet and unrestrained cheering ensued. Over and over again the cheers were renewed until sheer exhaustion compelled the enthusiastic clubmen and their guests to desist.

Mr. Cleveland looked the perfect picture of health and his voice had a ringing tone. The vim and vigor and emphasis with which he referred to democratic issues that had been "killed by the edicts of the American people," to a system of taxation which "debauched the public conscience" and the "colossal aggregations that threatened individual enterprise" thrilled his hearers to the quick.

When Mr. Cleveland remarked that "while the days of my political activity are over," cries of "No, no, no." went up from all parts of the room. His declaration that he had one burning political ambition before he died—to see the democratic party rehabilitated, "again the party whose mission is to bless the people"—caused the enthusiasm of the audience to break loose again.

CHEERS HILL'S PRAISE.

Ex-Senator Hill was greeted enthusiastically when he followed Mr. Cleveland and especially when he eulogized the ex-president for the stand he took for the republic of Venezuela when threatened by Great Britain.

Governor Montague, of Virginia, made a hit by his eloquence and Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Hill both stood up and gave him a hearty handshake when he stepped down from the platform.

Thomas Taggart, of Indianapolis, raised a lively cheer when he said Indiana was always ahead of all her sister states, as she had on June 4, in state convention, made no mention of dead issues. By a slip of the tongue he referred to the club as the Cleveland club, which brought out more cheering.

MR. CLEVELAND'S SPEECH.

It was Mr. Cleveland's first public political appearance in five years, and a distinguished gathering listened intently when he spoke as follows:

"I have been urged to participate in this occasion by those who have assured me that this handsome structure is to be dedicated tonight to the rehabilitation and consolidation of the democratic party, under the inspiration of a name which during the days of democratic strength and achievement was honored in every democratic household. Such an assurance made to one who followed with hearty devotion the leadership of Samuel J. Tilden when living, and who has since found in his career and fame the highest incentive to democratic steadfastness, could hardly fail to overcome the temptations of my intended retirement from political activity.

"Perhaps there are those who could define my position as one of banishment instead of retirement. Against this I shall not enter a protest. It is sufficient for me in either case that I have followed in matters of difference within our party the teachings of counsel of the great democrat in whose name party peace and harmony are tonight invoked. No confession of party sin should therefore be expected of me. I have none to make; nor do I crave political absolution. I came here to take counsel with others professing the same party faith concerning the democratic situation. I suppose we all are convinced that this situation might be improved, and some of us may think it is perilously undermined. Whatever the measure of its impairment may be, our condition as an organization cannot be improved by calling each other harsh names, nor by inaugurating a system of arbitrary prescription and banishment.

COMMON SENSE NEEDED.

"The members of a business firm in financial embarrassment should not sit down and look in each other's faces in mute despair; neither will they regain financial soundness or the confidence of the business community by recrimination and quarrel; nor will any members of the firm aid in its restoration to solvent strength by an angry insistence upon a continuation of the business methods which have invited its embarrassment.

"The democratic party is very far from political insolvency, but no one here should be offended by the suggestion that its capital and prospects have suffered serious injury since Mr. Tilden was elected president. Then and afterward northern democratic states were not rare curiosities, northern democratic senators, now practically extinct, were quite numerous, and northern democratic governors, now almost never seen, were frequently encountered.

SENATOR D. B. HILL.

SHOULD AVOID PITFALLS.

"Is it too much to ask our leaders to avoid paths that are known to lead to disaster? Is it too much to ask that proven errors be abandoned and that we be delivered from a body of death and relieved from the burden of issues which have been killed by the decrees of the American people? Ought we not to be fed upon something better than the husks of defeat? If these questions are met in an honest, manly fashion, I believe it will be productive of the best kind of democratic harmony.

"In dealing with new issues we of the democratic faith are extremely fortunate in the simplicity of democratic standards and the ease with which new questions can be measured by those standards. A party based upon care for the interests of all the people, as their aggregate condition demands, with no unjust favoritism for any particular class; a party devoted to the plan of popular government, as our fathers ordained it, and for the purposes which they sought to establish; a party whose conservatism opposes dangerous and un-American experiments and yet puts no barrier in the way of genuine and safe progress, ought to be able to deal with new questions in a manner quite consistent with democratic doctrine, and stimulating to democratic impulses and instincts.

MUST WEIGH ISSUES.

"Let us not forget, however, that it is not in the search of new and gaudy issues, nor in the interpretation of strange visions that a strong and healthy democracy displays its splendid power. Another party may thrive on the ever shifting treatment of the ever shifting moods of popular restlessness, or by an insincere play upon unreasoning prejudice and selfish anticipation, but the democratic party never.

"Democracy has already in store the doctrines for which it fights its successful battles, and it will have them in store as long as the people are kept from their own, and just as long as their rights and interests are sacrificed by favoritism in government care, by inequality in government burdens, by the encouragement of huge industrial aggregations that throttle individual enterprise, by the reckless waste of public money and by the greatest of all injuries as it underlies nearly all others, a system of tariff taxation whose robbing exactions are far beyond the needs of economical and legitimate government expenditure, which purchases support by appeals to sordidness and greed, and which continually corrupts the public conscience.

"What but infatuation with the visage of defeat can explain the subordination of these things by democrats when they prepare for battle?

OPPOSED TO MYSTERY.

"If we are to have a rehabilitation and re-alignment of our party in the sense suggested it is important that it be done openly and with no mystery or double meaning. Our people are too much on the alert to accept political deliverances they do not understand, and the enthusiasm of the democratic rank and file does not thrive on mystery.

"The democratic harmony of which we hear so much cannot be effectively constructed by mathematical rule nor by a formal agreement on the part of those who have been divided that there shall be harmony. It grows up naturally when true democratic principles are plainly announced, when democratic purposes are honestly declared, and when as a result of these confidence and enthusiasm stir the democratic blood.

"It was such harmony as this, growing out of such conditions which, with the battle cry of 'Tilden and Reform,' gave us the democratic victory of 1876 against odds great enough to discourage any but a harmonious democracy, and against an opposing force brazen and desperate enough to take from us by downright robbery what the voters of the land gave us.

THINKS VICTORY IS NEAR.

"I believe the times point to another democratic opportunity as near at hand, but I believe we shall reap the fruits of it only by following the line of conduct I have indicated. In any event, I have a comforting and abiding faith in the indestructibility of the party which has so many times shown its right to live and its power for good, and I am sure the reserve of patriotic democratic wisdom will at some time declare itself in the rescue of our country and our party.

"My days of political activity are past and I shall not hereafter assume to participate in party councils. I am absolutely content with retirement, but I still have one burning, anxious political aspiration. I want to see before I die the restoration to perfect health and supremacy of that democracy whose mission it is to bless the people—a democracy true to itself, untempted by clamor, unmoved by the gusts of popular passions and uncorrupted by offers of strange alliance—the democracy of patriotism, the democracy of safety, the democracy of Tilden and the democracy that deserves and wins success."

HILL PLEADS FOR UNITY.

Mr. Hill followed, outlining the proposed "harmony platform" in this wise:

"There is substantial accord among the democrats of the country upon all the timely issues which are now engrossing public attention.

"We are all united in favor of the preservation of constitutional liberty wherever our flag floats. We are opposed as the permanent policy of this government to the maintenance of dependent colonies to be governed outside of the pale of the constitution.

"We are all agreed that the civil should always be superior to the military power.

"We all concur in the principle that public taxation should be imposed for public purposes only.

"We all favor freedom of commerce and therefore favor genuine reciprocity with foreign nations, but are all opposed to sham republican reciprocity, which is only another name for republican hypocrisy.

"There is no division in sentiment in our opposition to corporate combinations of capital, which create monopolies, stifle competition and unreasonably enhance prices for the necessaries of life. We all stand for free trade in all articles controlled by the trusts.

ASKS JUSTICE FOR CUBA.

"We all desire justice for Cuba and justice to the consumers of the United States also.

"We all stand where Jackson, Benton and Tilden stood, in favor of hard money, as opposed to an irredeemable paper currency.

"We all recognize the dignity of labor and its right to demand just and adequate compensation.

"We are all opposed to an immense standing army in times of peace.

"We are all in favor of the constitutional reform involved in the election of United States senators by the people of the several states, rather than by state legislators.

"We all adhere to that doctrine declared by Jefferson as follows: 'Peace, commerce and honest friendship with all nations; entangling alliances with none.'

"With this substantial unity which exists upon these and other fundamental principles of democratic faith, to which I need not refer, we may safely appeal to the people, and in view of that satisfactory situation it would be folly to longer divide upon abstract or unreasonable questions.

"Let us not seek to cross any uncertain bridges until we reach them."

Governor A. J. Montague, of Virginia, and Colonel W. A. Gaston, of Boston, also delivered addresses.

IS MADE DOCTOR OF LAW

HON. WILLIAM P. BREEN IS GIVEN HIGH DEGREE.

University of Notre Dame Honors One of the Most Distinguished of Her Sons.

Notre Dame university yesterday conferred the honorary degree of doctor of laws upon Hon. William P. Breen, of this city. He was the only person to receive that most imposing honor at that seat of learning this year. Mr. Breen is one of the most eminent of the sons of the famous university and since he received his bachelor's degree twenty-five years ago has been one of the most ardent and constant supporters of his alma mater. In 1890 Mr. Breen took his master's degree and now is crowned with the highest honor the university can confer upon a layman. Mr. Breen was the commencement orator this year and his oration Wednesday is spoken of as one of the best that has ever been given at Notre Dame on a like occasion. Mr. Breen was also one of the speakers at the commencement of St. Mary's seminary, the famous girls' school, situated but a mile from Notre Dame.

HON. WILLIAM P. BREEN, LL. D.,
Eminent Fort Wayne Lawyer Who Has Just Received His Doctor's Degree from Notre Dame University.

Mr. Breen is the donor of the Breen medal for oratory at Notre Dame, one of the most coveted honors the university has to bestow upon young college men.

The Laetare medal, an honor bestowed once each year upon some man for distinguished service to humanity, was this year conferred upon Dr. J. B. Murphy, of Chicago, one of the world's greatest surgeons and a man quite well known in Fort Wayne.

A FINE EXHIBITION.

An exhibition of the work of pupils of St. Augustine academy is being held at the academy this week consisting of studies in water colors, oils, pastel work, drawing, crayon work and china painting and samples of work in embroidery and of the work of pupils of the commercial course. In the embroidery exhibit, the samples of work by boarders at the school, Misses Celeste Bloom, Gertrude Hoke, May Pengratz, Katherine Keenan, Henrietta Ader, Lottie Rambole, Merle Rudd, and Myrtle Ryan were especially fine.

Miss Mae Dittoe, Mrs. D. F. Crawford, Miss Katherine Hitzeman, Miss May Hutzell, Miss Emma Rath and Miss Hogan have some very creditable examples of work in china painting. Other pupils who deserve special mention for art studies are Miss Lottie Krumlauf, Miss Gertrude Hoke, Miss Florence Baker, Miss Linda McKinnie, Miss Dittoe, Miss Mauriel Kirby and Miss Witte. The day pupils have some excellent work on exhibition, and among those of which special mention deserve to be made are Nettie Meehan, Loretta Reiling, Edward Perley, Edna Getz, Grace Gordon, Cecelia Meyers, Angeline Mantl, Gertrude Hagan, Bernadette Leonard, Russella Langard, Katie Staub, Mary Havert, Josephine Henry, Bernadette Dittoe, Emma Schieman, Eveline Lordier, Agnes Dondero, Dora Reiling, Margaret Bashara, Anna Surfas, Edna Joly and Master Edward Perrey.

COMMENCEMENT TONIGHT.

Commencement exercises of St. Augustine's academy will be held this evening in Library hall and the following young ladies will receive diplomas and gold medals: Miss Mary Frances Kane, Miss Loretta Cecelia Logan, Miss Marie Jeanette Muhler. A gold medal for music will be conferred upon Miss Teresa Cunningham. Commercial diplomas will be conferred upon Miss Gertrude Hoke, Mae Dittoe, Mary Lowry, Mae Pangratz, Frances Welch, Violet Kunta. The program includes a number of instrumental selections and the play "Joan of Arc" written and arranged by the pupils. Bishop Alerding will confer the diplomas and medals.

GARTY—CROWE.

Miss Elizabeth Crowe and John J. Garty were married at the Cathedral Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. They were attended by Miss Elizabeth Garty and Thomas Crowe. Mr. and Mrs. Garty are at home at 727 East Jefferson street.

A NEW THING UNDER THE SUN.

While it may be justified in association with circuses, big and little, the common remark, "It's just the same old thing," is not applicable to The Sipe Wonderful Educated Animal and Lilliputian Shows whose double tents will be pitched in Fort Wayne on Saturday, June 21, for they undoubtedly are, in many ways, displays and features a genuine new departure.

Of what they specifically consist the advertisements and performances must tell, but, in the aggregate, they include hundreds of the prettiest, smallest and best trained Shetland Ponies seventy-two of which appear in a single act and ring; wonderful trick dogs of every size and breed; monkeys that act just like folks; baby elephants, and a street parade which seems to have come direct from Queen Mab's capital. They require a separate menagerie and Aviary tent, two rings, an elevated stage and a Hippodrome Course, in and upon which more than enough of wonder, fun and frolic is presented to linger in the dreams and on the tongue of childhood for many a day.

And what delights the children is bound to please everybody. Don't forget that.

GROSVENOR—BERGHORN.

Miss Louise Berghorn and Charles W. Grosvenor were married last evening at Redeemer Lutheran church by Rev. C. F. W. Meyer. The church was prettily decorated for the ceremony, palms and flowers being used in profusion on the altar. The attendants were Miss Clara Berghorn and Edward Rohan. The bride wore a most becoming gown of white silk mull and carried brides' roses and her maid wore a blue and white muslin and carried sweet peas. The wedding marches were played by Miss Lillian Ehler. The wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Fred Berghorn, the guests being relatives of the couple. The house was prettily decorated with ferns and flowers, the work of Miss Flick. Mr. and Mrs. Grosvenor have gone away on a wedding tour and on their return will go to housekeeping at 1314 Burgess street, where they will be at home after July 1.

A GRADUATE IN LAW.

William Fleming Dinnen, a son of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Dinnen, was graduated in law at Notre Dame university this week, having completed the necessary seven years' course. Mr. Dinnen is an honor graduate, and is well equipped for the practice of law. He will be admitted to the bar shortly and will practice in this city.

LIMITED, NON-PERSONAL LIABILITY.

It is one of those legitimate propositions that come along occasionally and is entirely free from the speculative or stock jobbing taint. We have the mine; it is paid for; the copper and gold is uncovered and all we need now is to have a few investors join us by taking a portion of our treasury stock at the nominal price of 25c per share. We are capitalized at $2,000,000, par value of shares is $1.00. Shares will be offered for a short time only—just long enough to secure the necessary funds for equipping the mine with machinery and making it a shipping and paying proposition. There is no question about the quantity or quality of the ore. We have fifty tons sacked and ready for the smelter only two miles away and thousands of tons in sight and ready to be taken out. There is nothing lacking in timber, water or transportation—the only unfilled requirement is money to operate with.

Does It Pay to Be a Small Investor?

If you owned 1,000 shares in the Quincy or Tamarack mine it would pay you $6,000 per annum. The same number of shares in the Calumet and Hecla would pay you $30,000; in the Boston and Montana $10,000; in the Homestake $6,000. The official reports from 200 mining companies show that $144,657,452 was paid in dividends during 1900. This is $5,000,000 more than was paid by all the railroads in the country during the same year. The small investor can buy a block of stock in the CAP SHEAF COPPER & GOLD CO. just as cheaply as the large investor, and, if an early buyer, at a price which promises him almost a fortune. Shares in the Calumet and Hecla mine once sold for less than one dollar—now they are worth $355.

We Ask You to Investigate Fully

but do it at once. We have facts, figures and samples that will interest the most conservative investor. We are anxious to place them before you in the best shape for intelligent and early consideration. Will you afford us the opportunity for doing so?

SCORES THE BRITISH NAVY

ADMIRAL LORD BERESFORD POINTS OUT WEAKNESS.

Says Both France and United States Possess Superior Armament—Speaks in Commons.

London, June 20.—During the discussion of the navy estimates in the house of commons today, Rear Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, conservative, scathingly criticised the deficiencies of the navy. He declared the whole admiralty system was rotten and led to great extravagance and that there was a general want of efficiency in the navy, on which depended the existence of the empire. This was the judgment of all the commissions of inquiry and had been proven a fact. Every increase in the number of ships and every improvement in them had been the result of outside agitation. As the result of such agitation the British Mediterranean fleet was now a fourth stronger than a year ago.

It was remarkable, Lord Beresford added, that both army and navy officers were compelled to threaten to resign in order to get things righteened. Great Britain had only 20,000 naval reserves instead of the requisite 80,000, and the engine room departments were thousands of men short. As to armament, both the United States and France possessed superior guns. Blunders would continue until a separate business board was appointed at the admiralty and was made responsible for the efficiency. As an instance, the speaker pointed out the case of Sir William Vernon Harcourt, who, when chancellor of the exchequer, put his pen through the ammunition supplies after the guns had been ordered.

Perhaps the most interesting man in public affairs in England just now is Lord Charles Beresford, who recently got himself elected a member of the house of commons. As the bluff sailor expresses it, he has hauled down his flag in the Mediterranean and raised it in the house of commons. His purpose is to make things lively for the British naval authorities, with whom he heartily disagrees.

MR. ROBINSON'S HONOR.

(Washington Post.)

"Robinson, of Indiana, enjoys an honor which belongs to no other democrat in this congress or in recent congresses, controlled by republicans," asserts Champ Clark, of Missouri. "He is the only democrat within my recollection of republican congresses who has presided in the house and received a message from a republican president."

This occurred the other day, while Mr. Clerk was speaking. General Grosvenor, of Ohio, was presiding in committee of the whole, and there were no republicans near, so lean was the attendance on that side of the chamber.

"The house will rise informally to receive a message from the president of the United States," Mr. General Grosvenor, as Mr. Barnes, the executive clerk, appeared at the head of the center aisle with a morocco portfolio under his arm.

Mr. Robinson was standing near the desk at that time, and General Grosvenor asked him to come up as speaker pro tem. in carrying out the formality, usual on such occasions. The message regarding the supply depot at Chalmette, La., was announced and delivered, and then General Grosvenor took the gavel from democratic hands.

AGED MAN TRIES TO SUICIDE.

New York, June 20.—Anthony Schneider, of New York, 72 years old, has attempted to commit suicide here, says a Paris dispatch to the World, by throwing himself in front of a locomotive on the Paris belt railway at the Courselles station. Both legs were cut off below the knees and he will die. Shneiderf is said to have lost heavily at Monte Carlo last April. His daughter-in-law arrived breathless at the station just in time to see the wheels roll over him. Then she fainted.

DIPLOMATS LEAVE CAPITAL.

Washington, June 20.—The usual summer exodus of the diplomatic body is about to begin in earnest. Ambassador Cambon will depart for France Sunday next. Ambassador Aspiroz will go to Mexico some day next week and Minister Brun will start for Denmark and Minister Pioda for Switzerland about the same time. Minister Wu has received Chinese newspapers containing copies of the edict which announced his appointment as one of the ministers to adapt a code of foreign laws to the Chinese practice, but he has not yet received the edict itself. The minister is not sure that the assignment would involve his return to China, as much of the work might be done here.

QUIET IN MINE REGION.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., June 20.—Extreme quietness continues to prevail throughout the Wyoming region. Strike headquarters presented a deserted appearance, all of the national and district leaders with the exception of President Mitchell being scattered through the coal belt. There was no change noticeable in the working forces of the coal companies, very few, if any men being brought out in this valley today.

M'GOVERN NOT BADLY HURT.

New York, June 20.—Terry McGovern, the pugilist, who injured his shoulder while playing first base at a base ball game at College Point on Wednesday afternoon, is not so badly injured as at first reported. It was thought at the time of the accident that his shoulder bone was fractured, but a further examination disclosed the fact that no bones were broken.

"TOMBS ANGEL" IS DEAD.

New York, June 20.—Mrs. Ernestine Schaffner, known as the "Tombs Angel," previous to entry into rescue work of Mrs. Foster, who lost her life in the Park Avenue hotel fire, is dead. She had been in poor health for several years and was compelled to give up her work in the city prisons on that account.

CHARGE OF LARCENY FAILS

FRANK M. MILLER ACQUITTED IN POLICE COURT.

Was Charged With Stealing Lead Pipe From Pennsylvania Railroad Company—Police Notes.

At police court this morning Frank M. Miller was acquitted of stealing a quantity of lead pipe from the Pennsylvania company, in whose employ he was when the offense was alleged to have been committed about a week ago. The case was continued from last Monday and this morning Joseph W. Askins, an attorney from Van Wert appeared in defense of the prisoner. The allegations of the state were that Miller, employed at the Pennsylvania coal docks at night, had carried away or caused to be carried away a quantity of old lead pipe, being replaced with new, in the construction of the improved water system of the company at the east yards. The lead pipe was sold to Minsky, a second hand and junk merchant in this city and Miller was identified with the sale of the stuff to the junker. The state, however, failed to establish the defendant's connection with the theft and after the examination of a number of witnesses, consuming an hour, Judge Dreibelbiss acquitted the defendant of the charge. Miller's wife was with him in court and other friends were present, ready to establish his general character as being good.

Fred Polten was up on a charge of vagrancy and was given an hour to leave town. After he had left a man appeared at the superintendent's office who said that he had heard of Polten's arrest and that he thought perhaps he had been fined; if that was the case he said he wanted to pay his fine. The stranger, who did not give his name, said that he had just got into town, was a stone cutter by trade and knew Polten, who is a pattern maker. He appeared to be much relieved to learn that his friend had not been locked up, and when told by the superintendent that the city did not tolerate strangers without visible means of support who could not give a good account of themselves, he left the police station in a hurry.

Charles Brown was arrested yesterday for drunkenness, admitted the charge and was sent over for eleven days.

Rosa Fields, who has just got out of jail, where she was sent on a charge of prostitution, was up again this morning; this time on a charge of being drunk. Rosie had endeavored to paint the atmosphere a rosy hue yesterday afternoon and was doing right well until she ran across a policeman. She took an eleven day package with her this morning.

STATE OFFICERS ELECTED.

Terre Haute, Ind., June 20.—The closing day of what is said to have been the largest state convention of Sunday school workers ever held in the country was largely given up to conferences on various departments of the work. Marion Lawrence, of Chicago, international field secretary, delivered an address to the normal department. Miss Nannie Lee Frayser, state superintendent of the primary department of Kentucky, was called on for a recitation, her addresses at the previous sessions having made her a favorite with the delegates. She has been the "star" of the convention, proving a stronger drawing card than any of the other speakers from outside the state. The election of officers resulted in the re-election of the old officers as follows: President, W. C. Hall, Indianapolis; vice president, George H. Knollenburg, Richmond; recording secretary, O. M. Pruitt, Indianapolis; treasurer, W. H. Elvin, Indianapolis. The committee on constitution reported an amendment providing for a second vice president, Judge W. E. Felt, Greenfield; recording secretary, O. M. Pruitt, Indianapolis; treasurer, W. H. Elvin, Indianapolis.

WABASH MAN IN TROUBLE.

Wabash, Ind., June 20.—On information filed by Mary Garrett, 15 years old, Marcus Cory, president of the Wabash county board of charities, was arrested on a paternity charge. Mr. Cory denies the allegation and asserts that an attorney prompted the proceedings in the hope of getting a large fee in compromise. The girl is fifteen, was formerly in the orphans' home here and declares that she got into trouble while in domestic service at the Cory home. She is not bright. Mr. Cory is 72 years old and has borne a high character. He gave bond to appear in the circuit court at the September term.

FELLS TREE AT NINETY-FOUR.

Peru, Ind., June 20.—Daniel Reeder, of Peru, was 94 years of age yesterday and seems to be as healthy and agile as he has been for a number of years. Yesterday he cut down a cherry tree and reduced it to stove wood. His bride of almost 65 years is able to do the housework for two.

ANCIENT TORTURE

How it has Been Revived in Modern Times.

An ancient method of poisoning criminals was to force them to swallow large quantities of bull's blood. Bull's blood is really no poison at all. Yet the prisoner usually died in agony. This was caused by the coagulation or hardening of the bull's blood in the stomach. The pressure of this solid mass on the heart, lungs and other vital organs almost always resulted fatally.

That's just like indigestion. If your food doesn't digest it remains in a hard lump in the stomach. Gases are formed, which crowd and sometimes actually displace other organs. Many cases of supposed heart disease are due to indigestion. The pressure upon the lungs interferes with breathing. A disordered stomach effects the whole body.

By the use of such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure all this trouble is removed. Before food can be assimilated into the system it must be reduced to proper condition by the digestive fluids. If any of these fluids are lacking, perfect digestion is impossible. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure supplies the missing fluids. Stomach troubles can't be cured by dieting. The system demands both a sufficiency and a variety of food. You can't get well or stay well without it. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach to take care of any kind of good food. It renders dieting unnecessary. It digests what you eat. In this way it rests the stomach. This rest soon restores the stomach to perfect health.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure helps the children too. Weak and sickly little ones thrive on it. It never fails.

"During the last few years my stomach was in such condition that I couldn't retain the food I ate," writes Henry Williams of Boonville, Mo. "Two months ago I commenced taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. A few bottles have cured me entirely. I can now eat and enjoy anything I want."

AN OLD SORE

Will sour the sweetest disposition and transform the most even tempered, lovable nature into a cross-grained and irritable individual.

If impatience or fault-finding are ever excusable it is when the body is tortured by an eating and painful sore. It is truly discouraging to find after months of diligent and faithful use of external remedies that the place remains as defiant, angry and offensive as ever. Every chronic sore, no matter on what part of the body it comes, is an evidence of some previous constitutional or organic trouble, and that the dregs of these diseases remain in the system; or, it may be that some long hidden poison—perhaps Cancer—has come to the surface and begun its destructive work.

The blood must be purified before the sore will fill up with healthy flesh and the skin regains its natural color. It is through the circulation that the acrid, corroding fluids are carried to the sore or ulcer and keep it irritated and inflamed. S. S. S. will purify and invigorate the stagnant blood when all sediment or other hurtful materials are washed out, fresh rich blood is carried to the diseased parts, new tissues form, and the decaying flesh begins to have a healthy and natural look; the discharge ceases and the sore heals.

SSS

Several years ago, my wife had a severe sore leg and was treated by the best physicians but received no benefit. Our druggist advised her to try S. S. S., which she did. Fourteen bottles cured her and she has been well ever since.
J. E. MAROLD, 22 Canal St., Cohoes, N. Y.

S. S. S. is the only blood purifier that is guaranteed entirely vegetable. It builds up the blood and tones up the general system as no other medicine does. BASE BALL

It was left to clubs in the second division to administer the last two successive defeats to the National league champions, St. Louis doing one of the tricks yesterday, to say nothing of the walloping the Pittsburgers received the day before at the hands of an amateur team at Worcester, Pa. New York is now at the bottom of the list, with Cincinnati just a notch above them. At three games yesterday in the National league the attendance was 5,178. The American league clubs played pretty games in four cities and in each of them sensational plays were made, one of them being a coup by Stahl, who stole home from third while the pitcher had the ball in his hand poising it for delivery; Stahl, however, is quite a pacer when he is on a base line and can sprint about as fast as the average pitcher can throw a ball. The attendance in the American league was 9,050. In the American association the attendance was 6,050 and loose playing marked most of the games, Milwaukee breaking the record with 9 errors, while Minneapolis had 7. One unusual feature of yesterday's game in all the leagues was that in every instance the visiting club won. The general results are given below:

IN NORTHERN INDIANA.

Elkhart is planning for a manual training school.

Joel Flowers, 81 years of age, died a few days ago at Cromwell.

The Chicago Telephone Supply company will establish itself in Elkhart and will employ 250 people.

Samuel Trump, of Elkhart, is in jail at Goshen for contempt of court. He refused to pay $3 a week for the support of his child.

Mrs. Benjamin Bower, 80 years of age and an early citizen of Noble county, died Wednesday at her home near Fairfield Center.

Harry Peters, of Marion, lost $2,700 trying to "break" a faro bank there, and has now appealed to the courts to get his money back.

The Miles Medical company at Elkhart, which issues an almanac, has installed in its laboratory an elaborate weather bureau outfit for making meterological observations. The equipment includes a wind vane, an anemometer for measuring wind velocity, a rain gauge and an attachment for recording the duration of sunlight, a recording barometer and thermometer, besides other apparatus.

Jacob Liechty, of Berne, 81 years of age, was thrown from his buggy in a runaway, and his right hip was fractured.

Silas Moore, a pioneer of Green Center, Noble county, is dead at the age of 81. For many years Mr. Moore was postmaster at his village and conducted an undertaking business.

While assisting at a barn raising on the farm of George Glasgow, three miles northeast of Upland, Thursday morning, Andrew Gardner, a farmer, was killed by timbers falling upon him.

The South Bend internal revenue office, which has been in existence more than forty years, has been ordered abolished and will pass out of existence July 1. Revenue stamps must now be procured either from Hammond, Fort Wayne or Indianapolis.

Capt. Somers, of the railroad detective force at Logansport, believed he had gotten a trace in DeKalb county of the man who recently shot Detective Strahl at Winamac. When Capt. Somers reached DeKalb county, however, the suspect had gotten a tip and disappeared. He was originally believed to be from Fort Wayne.

F. D. Smith, who shot and seriously wounded McCoy Lassiter at the latter's home in Whitley county several weeks ago, was given a preliminary hearing in Justice Elder's court at Columbia City and bound over in the sum of $1,000. He gave bond for his appearance with Attorney McNagny as surety and was released.

People for miles about are flocking to Bryant, Jay county, to see four mysterious pictures which have appeared upon the window of a house there. One pane of glass is the outline of a man on horseback armed with two revolvers and a rifle. On the pane facing him is a man armed with revolvers, while on the two lower panes of the sash are pictures of a big dog and some large animal. Soap will not wash away the strange apparitions, which can be seen only from the outside of the window.

A DIPLOMAT MUCH ANNOYED

ITALIAN AMBASSADOR HAS A KICK COMING.

Complains at State Department of Publication of Findings in Venetian Case.

Washington, June 20.—Signor Mayor Des Planches, the Italian ambassador, was one of the callers at the state department yesterday, it being diplomatic day, and took advantage of the opportunity to express to Dr. Hill, who was acting secretary of state in the absence of Mr. Hay, the very considerable amount of annoyance caused him by the publication of the findings of the court of inquiry which investigated the case of the American naval officers of the Chicago, imprisoned at Venice. The doctor listened sympathetically to the ambassador's representations, for the administration here has done all it could to minimize the Venetian incident, and has sought to prevent further publications of details in the interest of good feeling. At Dr. Hill's suggestion, the ambassador saw Secretary Moody, a rather unusual proceeding, for it is the rule for diplomatic representatives to confine their exchanges to the state department. At the conclusion of this conference Secretary Moody repaired to the state department and had a private talk with Dr. Hill. None of the participants in the conferences care to state the nature of the proceedings. It is believed, however, that Secretary Moody is about to institute a strict inquiry to ascertain how the report of the Chicago court of inquiry gained publicity, and the subject will be discussed at the cabinet meeting tomorrow.

HE WAS HIT BY A TRAIN.

(New Haven News.)

Fred Meyers, living north of town, was seriously hurt by a Wabash train on the Butler division last night about 8 o'clock. He had been about town most of the day and had taken on a pretty heavy load of "kill-me-quick" and was badly intoxicated when he started home. In some way unknown he was struck by a train, and at about 11 o'clock was found seriously hurt. Drs. Null and Brudi were called and dressed the wounds. It may terminate fatally.
